Bank Robbery

ALLEGHENY VALLEY BANK, Parkway Center Mall, Greentree, PA, Thursday, 09/27/2007, approximately 5:00PM.

M.O.

Lone white male entered the bank shortly before closing, approached a teller, and orally demanded specific denominations of bills. Put money in a black shoulder bag. Stated several times he would shoot the teller, but no weapon was actually displayed. On his way out of the bank, said "Sorry for the inconvenience." (After leaving bank, he may have been responsible for spreading roofing nails on driveway leading from bank.)

Description

Male, white, late 30's, about 5'8," medium build, unshaven, bandage or "Breathe-right" strip over bridge of nose; wearing tan ball cap with logo over the bill, black long-haired wig, black sunglasses, black knee-length coat, black pants. Had each of his fingers taped with duct tape.
